RECEIVED

APR 28 2005

FOR ENTRY

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

On April 21, 2005, the Clerk began collecting filing fees at a new rate as required by enactment of the "Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act." However, on April 26, 2005, the Clerk received notice from the Administrative Office of the U. S. Courts that they are interpreting the implementation date differently and requested that this court "defer implementation of [the] fees provisions "until the intent of Congress" can be clarified. Rather than inconvenience the bar, this court will acquiesce in this request in spite of the language of the statute.

IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk shall refund any payment received in excess of the statutory filing fee that was in effect prior to April 21, 2005.
